Manager's Minute

Kristine Kennedy

I think Spring is finally here. The sun has been making an appearance and the weather is warming up. I, for one, am ready for some sun and warmer weather!

We have a few fun events coming up this month that I hope you'll be able to attend. Spring trainings will finish up this month and I'll be contacting volunteers that didn't attend trainings who need to complete their updated health screenings.

I will be out of the office on vacation June 17th -28th. If you need anything from the Volunteer Office, please try and contact me before that date. Enjoy the warmer weather and see you in July!

You're Invited

Senator Chuck Grassley will be at LCHC on May 31, 2019 for a Q&A. He has invited volunteers to attend.

The Q&A will be from 11:45-12:30 in the Education room at LCHC. Hope you can attend on such short notice!

Homestead Assisted Living...

Homestead Assisted Living has many fun volunteer opportunities available all year round. From calling Bingo, to serving and having coffee with the resident coffee groups and taking trips out of town to shop or eat with the residents - this is a fun place to get to know others while serving your community.

Volunteers are encouraged to set up times to bring out crafts to share, such as quilts and other creative projects. Maybe you'd like to help with manicures or just play cards and visit with residents? There are many opportunities you can try when volunteering.

As a Homestead volunteer, you can be sure to gain friendships, improve the lives of residents, strengthen skills in preparation for a career, and gain a wealth of knowledge from the residents. Your impact as a volunteer would be allowing the residents to stay connected and involved with their community.

Do you only have one hour to give? This might be the place for you. Most activities last an hour to 1.5 hours during the morning or afternoon. They are also interested in volunteers that would like to participate in evening games if that works better for your busy schedule! Outgoing individuals and families are encouraged to get involved at Homestead. Please contact Darcy Graves at 774-2303 or Kristine in the Volunteer Office for more information.
